PASTOR'S CORNER

My Dear Family,

When we look at a bible, its many pages and tiny font size can easily give us the idea that it is a long and complicated read. And it can be, if you decide to try and read it front to back. However, if you actually read it, you can find rather quickly that many of its books are trying to get the same messages across. Those who claim to read the bible call it complicated, but those who actually read the bible would call it repetitive, and that is not a bad thing. God often repeats messages of great importance, and we can find ourselves hearing the same lessons from God time and time again. And with good reason. The message needs to stick.

We already have God's instruction at our disposal, and God repeats it all the time. Do not become deaf to God's word. And do not wait until your judgment before you pay attention to it. We all hear the word of God. Do we live it?
