PASTOR'S CORNER

My Dear Family,

Today is the feast day of St. Damien, a priest who we remember as our patron, who served the people of Hawaii as a priest from the age of 24 until his death from leprosy at the age of 49. But I also would like to remember another priest who has served the people of Hawaii with the same spirit of devotion, but who has ended his ministry.

Many of us have received our sacraments from him. Many of us have had the opportunity to sit with him and celebrate Mass with him. Most of us have shaken his hand. He has been our father for many years, our Bishop, the Most Reverend Larry Silva. In his retirement, he has left a legacy for all the people of Hawaii. Following his motto, let us continue his legacy as we WITNESS TO JESUS. Thank you, Bishop Larry, for your devotion, your leadership, and your fatherhood.
