PASTOR’S CORNER

My Dear Family,

Fear is one of our greatest weaknesses. Not fear of the Lord; that is a virtue. Nor fear of death; that is natural and can even help us prepare for death properly. The fear that is a weakness is a fear of being judged by the world. A fear of being unpopular. A fear of being insulted. This fear causes us to hide our faith rather than show the world that we love the Lord. It prevents us from living our faith, evangelizing through action, and reminding the world that believers still walk this earth. And what does God tell us when such fear comes to us?

“Fear no one.”

Be courageous. Show the world your faith. Even if you lose favor with people, you have found favor with God. And that is far more important.
