PASTOR’S CORNER

My Dear Family,

When Christ talks about the temple in Jerusalem, he often mentions that it will be destroyed, despite its beauty and perfection. At the same time, when he speaks about us, despite our damaged hearts and checkered pasts, he tells us that not one hair on our heads will be harmed so long as we persevere in our pursuit of God.

God sees the good in us, even when we do not see it ourselves. The reason why he is constantly inviting us to come to him is because he can give us the grace to turn that potential into reality, transforming us into the best version of ourselves. Often times, we want to be a better version of ourselves, but don’t know how to make it happen. It is God that makes that happen. Do you struggle with something? Do you wish to be transformed? Go to God.
