PASTOR'S CORNER

My Dear Family,

“It is good that we are here.”

These are the words of St. Peter as he marvels at the profound revelation of the divinity of Christ on full display. Christ appears unmasked, no longer in a mere mortal likeness, but with his nature revealed. Throughout scripture, prophets and holy men saw such visions of the glory of God and hid their faces in fear. Peter, filled with faith, looks not in fear, but in wonder. Faith turns fearful trembling into trembling in awe. Faith turns bitter tears into tears of joy. Faith allows lowly man to gaze upon the height of God. And faith allows us to see in our Mass what Peter saw on that mountain.

It is good that we are here.
