PASTOR'S CORNER

My Dear Family,

Imagine that day. Peter asks Jesus to invite him to walk on water, and he does. Peter is standing on the water, something physically impossible, done so by the miraculous powers of Christ, who Peter knows to be the son of God. Peter is fully aware that it is through Christ that he is standing on water, that it is Christ keeping him safe. Yet, when he focuses on the waves and wind, his fear returns to him and his faith is shaken. How does this happen? Shouldn't he know that Christ is keeping him safe? Absolutely, until he focuses on other things grabbing his attention away from Christ, and in that moment, overwhelmed with fear, he loses faith and drops beneath the waves.

If we want our faith to remain strong, it is essential that we keep Christ firmly fixed in our hearts and our minds. We cannot let the winds and waves of anxieties and worries take us away from Christ. Keep your focus on Christ, and you will be made secure.
