PASTOR’S CORNER

My Dear Family,

We are always on a journey to better our relationship with God and to follow his commands with ever greater perfection. We must always challenge ourselves to improve, never being satisfied with our current standing with the Lord. We can always pray more and do more, yes, but more than that, we can pray more intensely and work with more fervor. We must concern ourselves with the quantity of our prayer and works, but also the quality of those prayers and works. As we approach the season of Lent, intensify your Christian life. Go above and beyond what the Church requires of you and embrace the Christian life for its own sake.
