PASTOR'S CORNER

My Dear Family,

We cannot love God if we do not love our neighbor. We cannot love God if we judge our neighbor. In the parable of the Good Samaritan, the Samaritan Man finds a man in need of help and helps him. He does not think about who this man might be, what his background is, or what might have led to the sight before him. He sees a man in need and helps him. Who is our neighbor? Our neighbor is whoever we come across. Whether they be our friend, a stranger, someone familiar or unfamiliar, it does not matter. Everyone, by virtue of their humanity, is our neighbor. And God calls us to love them.
