PASTOR'S CORNER

My Dear Family,

As God scatters the seed of His word, we wish that it would fall in us and that we might become a fruitful vine. We must guard against becoming like the roadside, beat down by anxiety and useless worry. We must also guard against becoming like rocky ground, made shallow by passions and unstable urges. We must also guard against growing thorns of want and envy. We must cultivate our very soul, so that it can become like rich soil. We become rich soil by discipline of the body, exercise of the mind, and prayer of the heart.
