CATHOLIC MEN'S FELLOWSHIP OF HAWAII ANNUAL RETREAT: OCTOBER 24–25, 2025

PASTOR'S CORNER

My Dear Family,

There is a practice in our faith which is not talked about very much called Conversatio Morum, which translate to “conversion of manner” or “conversion of life.” It is practice of bettering ourselves day by day in our relationship with God and practicing our faith. Often, practicing Conversatio Morum is not about making a big change, but instead making many small changes that challenge us to go above and beyond. For example, we all say our prayers, but do we say them slowly and with focus? We all give reverence to God, but can we show our reverence even more? We give 15 minutes of prayer, can we give 20? We can always improve our practice. How will you improve yours?
