PASTOR'S CORNER

My Dear Family,

The lesson of Christ's feeding of the five thousand is far more than just Christ proving his divinity by creating bread out of thin air. Reflecting upon it for our own selves, we can see how Christ first tells the apostles to give them food, but when they say how little they have, he then provides them with more.

This is a very important lesson for us. Christ gives us a mission, whether it be service to our community, teaching the faith, or even just being a parent. Such tasks can be overwhelming at times. It is then that Christ shows his providence. He will supply his faithful ones with what we need to carry out his will. Do not think you are being sent forth on your own. God will give you everything you need to complete your mission.
