FOLLOWING IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF HAWAII'S SAINTS

This month, news is spreading that the Diocese of Honolulu is preparing for a special milestone in 2027—the bicentennial anniversary of the arrival of the Catholic faith in Hawai'i. This will be a blessed time to reflect on and celebrate 200 years of Witness to Jesus in the islands.

The celebration will highlight the legacy of missionary saints like St. Damien and St. Marianne, who were among the first Catholic missionaries to respond to Christ's call in Hawai'i. Their faith-filled journey continues to inspire all of us to follow in their footsteps.

To learn more about Hawai'i's missionary saints and how we can live out their legacy, please watch the video "Following Footsteps" at:

The video is also available on:

 www.catholichawaii.org

 www.officeforsocialministry.org

In the words of Bishop Larry Silva at the end of the video:  "Let us join together with Fr. Damien and Mother Marianne, and with all the wonderful people who have gone before us. Let us follow the Lord, giving ourselves in whatever way we can, so that all our brothers and sisters can live in dignity."

PASTOR'S CORNER

My Dear Family,

Hospitality is an important task for any person of faith who desires to love one another. Martha is doing a great and necessary good in her work, feeding thirteen guests in her small home; no small feat. But in her business, she neglects sometimes important: company. This is why our Lord says that Mary, who spent time with the Lord and his disciples, chose the better part. Martha, in her business, did not spend time simply being with the Lord.

Often, we too are consumed with work, even good work. And indeed, we are called to do good works. But we cannot allow our business to consume us. Time being with the Lord in our quiet place is more valuable than time working for the Lord. Not that we should neglect our works, but we absolutely need to make time for the Lord. Be like Martha and be like Mary. Work and pray. Serve God but also get to know God.
