Pastor's Corner

My Dear Family,

Thanksgiving will soon be upon us and, aside from narrowly avoiding the sin of gluttony, it is that special time of year in which we remind ourselves of how much our God has given us in our life. It is good for us to take stock of our gifts and talents, recognizing that these are things given to us by God so that we can realize our place in the world and in his kingdom. With this in mind, it is also important for us to recognize the gifts we are given as the tools God has given us not only to benefit ourselves, but to benefit the Church and, more importantly, God's plan for us. If we neglect to use our talents for God's good, we are wasting our very lives, not living up to the calling that God has laid out for us. When we stand before God, we will have to give an account of the gifts we have received and how we have used those gifts to give back to God. Do not neglect your gifts. Use them.

Worldwide Marriage Encounter
Retreat: February 19–21, 2027

In this weekend's Gospel, a master entrusts his servants with gifts and expects them to be used well. Marriage, too, is a gift that grows when tended.

Worldwide Marriage Encounter helps couples enrich their sacrament through time together and stronger communications skills.

Join WWME Hawai'i for a residential weekend Feb. 19–21, 2027, at St. Anthony Retreat Center in Kalihi Valley, O'ahu.

Priests are also welcome to renew their vocation and strengthen parish relationships.
