PASTOR'S CORNER

My Dear Family,

On this Good Shepherd Sunday, we celebrate Christ as our good shepherd, but we also should take a moment to celebrate our shepherds, the bishops and priests who serve the Church and provide us with the sacraments that transform us into the holy people of God. Even more so, we should celebrate the vocation to the priesthood, and the call of men to serve the Church in this powerful capacity.

In the same space, we also need to pray for our priests; for their strength, for their increased dedication, and for their perseverance. Pray also for those seminarians preparing to become priests. Pray also for more vocations, and help the Church seek out those men called by God for this wonderful ministry.
