PASTOR'S CORNER

My Dear Family,

What do we do with the gifts we receive from God? Do we take them as our own, using them for our own purposes regardless of God's perspective? Instead, we are meant to recognize that, as we receive gifts from God, we are meant to give Him thanks by using those gifts for His purpose and the benefit of one another.

When we take account of our blessings, whether they be resources, talents, or other kinds of gifts, we ought to ask ourselves, "How does God want me to use these?" This is because, in our humility, we are not meant to keep anything for ourselves, but are meant to give everything to others; not only financial and physical goods, but also our gifts of service. The saint does not seek anything for himself, but instead gives everything of himself until he has nothing left but God.
