PASTOR'S CORNER

My Dear Family,

Do we persist in prayer, no matter what? Is our prayer daily? Is it hourly? Is it constant? If it is not persistent and constant, it must become so, otherwise we will not receive the graces from God we so desperately need. Prayer is not wish-making, only done when we need something from God. Neither is prayer only talking with God when we feel like it. Prayer is discipline. Prayer is exercise. Prayer is training us for the reality of heaven, where the soul communes with God in endless union of mind and heart. Prayer is meant to be who we are. "Be watchful," the Apostle says, "pray constantly, and give thanks in all times and circumstances." Never cease your connection with God. Let it be there in good times, in bad times, in average times, during the day and during the night. Watch and pray. Always.
