PASTOR'S CORNER

My Dear Family,

How often we beseech the Lord of some miracle, great or small. We cry out in agony, clutching our hands together with tears in our eyes, begging God for that thing which we so desperately need. Once God shows us his great goodness and gives us the thing we seek, how is it we then respond? After sober reflecting, we often find that we are guilty of the same complacency of the nine lepers, who received their blessing from the Lord and then went about their way, turning their back on the Lord once they got what they wanted. We must not allow ourselves to become ungrateful to the Lord. We must always thank him. Do not neglect your thanksgiving.

HOLY FAMILY WOMEN'S GROUP
