PASTOR'S CORNER

My Dear Family,

In all things, Christ became like us so that we could follow him. He was born as we were all born. He grew up under his parents as we are meant to. He lived a life of work and service to his fellow man, as we are called to do. He lived his earthly life loving God and neighbor, as he tells us to do. He died, as will we when our time comes. And then he rose again, as he promised will happen to us. And today, he went to heaven, where he calls us to go after him. But we must remember: If we want to follow Christ in the next life, we need to follow Christ in this life. Model your life after Christ and keep your eyes on heaven until you see him face to face.
